New Delhi, the 27th March 1958

S.O. 423.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 7 of the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 (46 of 1948), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments in the Rajasthan

Coal Mines Bonus Scheme, published with the notification of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Labour No. S.R.O. 3643 dated the 17th December, 1954, and as amended from time to time, namely:—

In the said Scheme—

1. in paragraph 7.

(i) for sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) the following sub-paragraphs shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) If a strike takes place in a coal mine, the employer shall, in case he considers the strike to be illegal, within 30 days from the commencement of the strike make an application to the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central) having jurisdiction in the area in which the coal mine is situated or to any other officer specified by the Central Government in this behalf, for decision whether the strike is legal or illegal.

(2) If the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central) concerned or the officer specified by the Central Government in this behalf, as the case may be, decides that the strike was illegal, no bonus shall be payable in respect of the quarter in which the strike takes place to all those who participate in such illegal strike:

Provided that where any such illegal strike is called off within forty eight hours of its commencement, the amount of bonus that would have fallen due to the employees but for such participation shall be paid by the employer within a period of thirty days from the date on which the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central) concerned or the officer specified by the Central Government in this behalf gives his decision declaring the strike illegal, for credit to the “Reserve Account” of the Coal Mines Provident Fund established under the Rajasthan Coal Mines Provident Fund Scheme published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour and Employment No. S.O. 32, dated the 11th February, 1958:

Provided further that where an appeal is filed against that decision under sub-paragraph (5) of this paragraph and it is dismissed, the aforesaid payment shall be made within ten days of the dismissal of the appeal.

(3) The payment of the amount of bonus referred to in the provisos under sub-paragraph (2) shall be made by deposit in such Government treasury and under such head of account as the Central Government may direct in this behalf and the original treasury challan whereby the deposit has been made shall be sent within a fortnight of the date of the deposit to the Coal Mines Provident Fund Commissioner together with a statement in such form as he may specify in this behalf.”;

(ii) in sub-paragraphs (4) and (5), after the words “The Regional Labour Commissioner” the words “or the officer specified by the Central Government in this behalf, as the case may be” shall be inserted;

(iii) for sub-paragraph (9), the following sub-paragraph shall be substituted, namely:—

“(9) The Regional Labour Commissioner or the officer specified by the Central Government in this behalf or the Tribunal shall decide the application or the appeal, as the case may be, after giving reasonable notice to the parties concerned and after affording them an opportunity of being heard”;

2. in the proviso to sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 8 for the words and figures “sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 7” the words and figures “sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 7” shall be substituted.
